

Size Distribution

The distribution of a feature's dimensions / magnitude. For example, for laminations, this can refer to laminae thickness distribution, measured in cross-section parallel to its growth direction. For tunnels, this can refer to tunnel diameter distributions and length ranges.